To comply with Title 1, Canon 19 of the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church permitting divorced persons to be remarried in the Episcopal Church, Bishop Robert J. O'Neill asks the following of the clergy and divorced couples seeking remarriage:

1. The Member of the Clergy shall be satisfied by appropriate evidence that the prior marriage has been annulled or dissolved by a final judgment or decree of a civil court of competent jurisdiction. A copy of the divorce decree must be included in the packet to the Diocese.
2. The Member of the Clergy shall have instructed the parties that continuing concern must be shown for the well-being of the former spouse, and of any children of the prior marriage.
3. The Member of the Clergy shall consult with and obtain the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese wherein the Member of the Clergy is canonically resident or the Bishop of the Diocese in which the Member of the Clergy is licensed to officiate prior to, and shall report to that Bishop, the solemnization of any marriage under this Section.
4. If the proposed marriage is to be solemnized in a jurisdiction other than the one in which the consent has been given, the consent shall be affirmed by the Bishop of that jurisdiction.

APPLICANT: Please give prayerful and careful response to these questions, which are designed to give insight into your former relationship and help identify any problems, which may be prevented in the marriage you now contemplate. (Please answer on a separate page.)

1. What caused the divorce? This should be stated from your point of view, ignoring any blaming of the other party. What did you contribute to the situation?
2. What insights did you gain from the divorce? This question allows you to share some thoughts on your contribution to the breakup of your previous marriage. It might be useful for you to examine any expectations, dreams or hopes, which were frustrated in your previous marriage.
3. What insights and strengths do you bring to this new relationship? How does this new knowledge apply? What expectations do you have?
4. What part will the Church play in the future marital relationship? This question is crucial because the Episcopal Church holds sacred the institution of Christian marriage. You’ll want to acquaint the Bishop with your view of Christian marriage in contrast with a civil marriage. Since the wedding ceremony is only the beginning of a new life together, our desire is to help you establish a solid foundation for a happy and fulfilling life together.
