

A Litany for Morning

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ, let us pray to God.

All Christ, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world,
for the welfare of the Holy Church of God,
and for the unity of all,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For all the members of the Church in their vocation
and ministry,
that they may serve God in truth and love,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For Michael, our presiding bishop,
and for all bishops, presbyters and deacons, that they may hunger for truth and thirst after righteousness,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For Debbie, Gary, Laura, Michael, and Michele called to be deacons in the Church,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For the mission of the Church,
that in faithful witness we may proclaim the gospel of reconciliation
to the ends of the earth,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For the unity of the Church, that we may be one in Christ, according to his will,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For those who do not yet believe,
that they may receive the light of the gospel,
and for those whose faith has grown cold,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For the sick and suffering,
for the aged and infirm,
for the lonely and neglected,
and for all who remember and care for them,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For the poor and the hungry,
for the homeless and the oppressed,
for all prisoners and captives, and for our siblings who are persecuted for their faith,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For the leaders of the nations,
and for all in authority,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

For ourselves,
for grace to repent and amend our lives,
that we may be pardoned and absolved from all
our sins,
let us pray.

All Christ, have mercy.

Remembering [... and]
all who have gone before us in faith,
and in communion with [... and] all the saints,
we commit ourselves, one another,
and our whole life to Christ our God;

All to you, O Christ
