The purpose of the ministry of The Office of the Bishop is "to serve, support, and expand God's mission through The Episcopal Church In Colorado." That ministry is organized into five key areas: (1) Pastoral Care and Support of Clergy and Lay Leaders, (2) Evangelism, Christian Formation & Leadership Training, (3) Congregational Development & Transition Ministry, (4) Advocacy and Social Justice, and (5) Development & Financial Stewardship--all under the oversight of the Ministry of the Bishop and all supported by the Communications Department and Business Office.

The proposed 2017 operating Budget for The Office of the Bishop is aligned in such a way as to directly reflect these ministry areas to the degree they can be funded at this time, and it incorporates the following major assumptions:

All staff to receive a 2% cost of living increase.

Health insurance benefits are projected to reflect a 6% increase.

The Ministry of the Bishop is one of oversight (or episcope) of all congregations on the Diocese. As Chief Pastor, the Bishop serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, manages the business affairs of the Diocese, is responsible for upholding the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church, and for empowering and supporting all aspects of the Church's ministry across the Diocese. The ministry of the Bishop is directly supported through the Counsel and Advice of the Standing Committee which serves as the Board of Directors of the Corporation along with the assistance of an Administrative Assistant.

Due to the large size of the Diocese, the Bishop's travel is extensive. In addition to presiding at ordinations, confirmations, celebrations of new ministry, other special services, and pastoral care and consultation throughout the state, the Bishop is canonically required to visit each congregation in the Diocese at least once every three years. The Bishop's travel, entertainment, and business meal expenses are a reflection of this commitment. Additionally, the Bishop represents Colorado to The Episcopal Church and Anglican Communion at large, including regular meetings of the House of Bishops.

The Annual Convention of the Diocese is the primary gathering of The Episcopal Church in Colorado, providing clergy and lay leaders an opportunity to strengthen their understanding can commitment to God's mission among us. Clergy and lay leaders pay their own travel and lodging expenses. The Diocese pays for the planning, administration, security and facilities costs.

The Canon to the Ordinary is primarily responsible for the pastoral care and support of the clergy and lay leaders of the Diocese, including supervising and supporting the daily operation and management of the Office of the Bishop. This includes implementing the initiatives and policies of the Bishop and Standing Committee as well as providing a variety of forms of pastoral support to clergy and lay leaders across the Diocese. The Canon to the Ordinary coordinates the work of the Senior Staff, the Commission on Ministry, the Trust and Endowment Committee, and the legal work of the Chancellors.

Key to the work of the Canon to the Ordinary is supporting clergy wellness across the Diocese which specifically includes programs to develop the clergy professionally and personally, and the management of clergy compensation and benefits, including health and pension programs.

The Canon to the Ordinary is supported by the work of an Administrative Assistant and Database Manager.

The Missioner for Advocacy and Social Justice is a newly established part-time position in the Office of the Bishop, and is responsible for calling The Episcopal Church in Colorado to the spiritual discipline of integrating the Christian faith and life with complex issues of justice in order to bear witness to the gospel in the world and to advocate on behalf of the poor, the marginalized, and dispossessed.

Key to this ministry is the oversight and development of Colorado Episcopal Service Corp (a separate diocesan institution) and the support of Colorado's 34 Jubilee Ministries.

This area of ministry oversees the administration of pass through grants from temporarily restricted trust and endowment accounts to various beneficiaries, and variations in those grants do not affect the bottom line of operating budget
