News and updates about the Episcopal Church in Northwest Colorado
- Fall 2022 -

←TEAMING UP FOR CONFIRMATIONS: During the visit of Bishop Kym Lucas to St. James, Meeker she both confirmed and received members of that congregation and neighboring St. Mark's Church of Grace, Craig. The Rev. Scott Hollenbeck (St. James) and the Rev. Bain White (St. Mark) are at right.

Congregations in the Northwest Region celebrated summer 2022 in a host of ways!

COME RAIN OR COME SHINE→

St. John the Baptist, Granby, celebrated along with Bishop Kym at the Double A Barn on Aug. 22. No one needed a water rescue with the bishop's crozier!

←CELEBRATION OF NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

What better place than the church's outdoor worship area for a summer baptism at St. Peter's of the Valley, Basalt? Rector Wendy Huber officiated.

←A JOYFUL NOISE:

Musicians from the National Repertory Orchestra lifted spirits on July 17 at Mass on the Grass, the annual picnic of St. John the Baptist, Breckenridge.

← A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW: Transfiguration, Vail/Edwards went to the mountaintop at Eagles Nest for its Feast Day on Aug. 7 which featured 3 baptisms and a festive potluck.

A WILD TIME AT STEAMBOAT →
St. Paul, Steamboat Springs held its annual church picnic and send-off for Rector Catie Greene at Wolf Run Ranch, August 28. Featured guest: a reindeer (or caribou?)!

← A BARN SWELL TIME: Christ Church, Aspen celebrated the end of a glorious summer at Redstone Ranch on September 10.

SOAKING IN THE SUN →
As summer wound down, folks at St. James, Meeker gathered on the church lawn for a relaxing late afternoon.

From our Region's history:

It was Bishop Fred Ingley's task to re-integrate western slope churches into the diocese of Colorado after a 20+-year separation. He traveled extensively to do so.
