

David Christenson:

I am an Accountant, a retired CPA with more than 50 years' experience. I am retired CEO of a satellite communication company serving the critical infrastructure for the oil & gas, utility and water management industries. I am the retired financial director of Calvary Church Golden, where i also was Project Manager for the construction of our Ministry Center, Parking Garage and Celebration Plaza. I also managed Calvary's investment in the historic Armory property in Golden Colorado.

I was born in Aurora, Nebraska, served in the US Navy and graduated from the University of Nebraska with Honors. We moved to Colorado in 1970. My wife Sharon and I have one daughter, two grandchildren and two great grandchildren. We have traveled extensively in North America and loved every minute of it. We love going out to dinner and visiting with friends and family.
