Questions

1. Why do you feel called to serve the Church as a Deputy to General Convention?
2. What life experiences and/or training can you offer as a resource to the Church?
3. Describe your ministries, participation and experience in the Episcopal Church.
4. What aspects of our corporate life or issues facing the Church today hold particular interest or importance to you?
5. How will your participation as part of the deputation enhance the life, mission and ministry of our diocese?
6. Serving as a Deputy requires significant meeting time in the 9 months prior to General Convention, and some time following General Convention to share with members of the Diocese. Will you be able to prioritize this commitment?
