COME AS YOU ARE: INCLUSIVE BLUEGRASS GOSPEL SERVICES BEGIN WEEKLY AT ST. LUKE'S
The Weekly Service Celebrates Community, Connection, and Inclusion for All

Denver, CO — (August 11, 2025): St Luke's is proud to spotlight a powerful expression of community, and connection through Bluegrass Gospel services at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Denver. Beginning Sunday, September 7, this weekly service is open to everyone regardless of where you are on your life journey.

Hosted every Sunday evening, the service is a warm, joyful, affirming gathering intentionally designed to be inclusive, accessible, and welcoming to all identities, orientations, and expressions of faith (or no faith at all).

St. Luke's Episcopal Church

1270 Poplar Street
Denver, CO 80220
303-355-2331

Service: 5:00 p.m. – 5:45 p.m.

Additional Music & Singing: 5:45 p.m. – 6:15 p.m.

Held outdoors (weather permitting), the Bluegrass Gospel Service blends heartfelt worship with soul-stirring bluegrass music. Attendees are encouraged to come as they are, no dress code, no expectations, just open hearts. Chairs are provided, or guests are welcome to bring their own.

"We are pleased to offer a welcoming, relaxed, come-as-you-are service of Holy Eucharist that strives to meet the needs of folks for whom Sunday mornings or traditional worship don't fit," said rector, Mother Amy Underhill Lythgoe. "It's always wonderful to see all ages and types of folks come together for worship, singing, and friendly community. At Saint Luke's we strongly believe: 'Be You. Be Here. Belong.' Please join us!"

Join the growing community of friends, neighbors, and new faces each Sunday. For a glimpse into this meaningful experience, visit the Facebook event and follow @stlukesdenver on Instagram for updates.
