

The Camino Francés de Santiago, or the French Way of St. James, begins in France and continues some 500 miles into the region of Galicia and finally to Santiago. This same path has been taken for over 1300 years by the faithful, making their Holy Pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela. This path was also used by Roman, Moor, and Saracen invaders, the Knights Templar and the armies of Charlemagne and Napoleon. Therefore, this journey is not only steeped in spiritual significance as you travel to the place believed to be the burial site of St. James, but it also has much historical and cultural significance.

Pilgrims from across the Episcopal Church in Colorado have made Camino pilgrimages for years, and this year, we have created another life-changing pilgrimage, including memorable experiences walking through the ancient landscape of Galicia with more walking and more inspiration!

DAY 1. Monday 18 May 2026: DEPART USA - Denver Airport

Depart for your overnight flight to Spain. Meals will be served onboard.

DAY 2. Tuesday 19 May 2026: Arrival

Upon arrival at Vigo airport, we meet our pilgrim guide. Together, we travel the final leg of our journey to Sarria. Check into our hotel, and the late afternoon and evening are free for you to relax and unwind. Overnight in Sarria.

DAY 3. Wednesday 20 May 2026: Sarria

Today is a day to get over your jetlag and get acclimatized to your new environment. THE WAY OF SAINT JAMES. We are going to take advantage of our (almost) non-walking day to visit some of the areas' emblematic historical Camino sites. Beginning with a guided visit of the Monastery of San Xulián de Samos. This monastery is comprised of several architectural styles: late Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque. But the foundation of the Monastery dates back to the mid-600s. From there, our journey will take us to the hilltop hamlet of O Cebreiro, one of the most significant places along the Camino de Santiago and home to the church of Santa María la Real. Here we will learn a little more about the local rural architecture, the church, its legend, and the significant act that a priest of this parish carried out in 1984. After a short free time period to get a snack for lunch we are going to take the opportunity to enjoy a short 8km walk, through wonderful countryside, towards the town of Triacastela. Once we have regrouped, we will travel back to Sarria. Before dinner, an orientation talk about the following day's walk, and reflection time. Breakfast, Dinner & Overnight in Sarria

DAY 4. Thursday 21 May 2026: Sarria to Portomarin.

Your pilgrimage begins. Today's walk, from Sarria to Portomarin, approx. 23km through the beautiful rolling hills of Galicia. One of the most picturesque days of your journey, where time is your own to find your feet and breathe. A day when, without a doubt, you will meet many fellow Pilgrims as your new adventure unfolds. A day when you will also pass by the 100km to the Santiago point. Overnight in Portomarin.

DAY 5. Friday 22 May 2026: Portomarin to Logoso

Early breakfast and check out. Departing Portomarin leaving the Minho River behind as we climb the hill at the beginning part of today's walk. Approx. 20km, Portomarin to Ligonde. Through fields, farmland and the ancient settlement of Castromayor. Passing through small roadside villages such as Gonzar, Hospital da Cruz, and Ligonde, before finally arriving at our meeting point at the end of the days walk. From there you will be transferred in our vehicle to our night's rural accommodation, just a 5-minute drive away. Early evening orientation talk about the following days walk. Dinner & overnight Logoso

DAY 6. Saturday 23 May 2026: Logoso to Melide

Breakfast and check out and you will be taken to the end point of yesterday's walk. Today's walk is a similar distance to yesterday. Approx. 21km Ligonde to Melide. We are still walking through countryside but today's walk ends in the bustling town of Melide. Famous for its Octopus gastronomy. Optional dinner at a local Octopus restaurant (cost not included). After dinner an orientation talk about the following days walk. Overnight Melide

DAY 7. Sunday 24 May 2026: Melide to Arzua.

Early breakfast and check out. Our body is weary, our feet are tired. A shorter walk today, from Melide to Arzua approx. 16km. A series of up and down hills take you to the Iso River, from there the final uphill of the day into the town of Arzua. Overnight in Arzua.

Early breakfast and check out. Today's walk Arzua to Pedrouzo, approx. 23km. Believe us when we say that you will have forgotten yesterday's hardships and actually wish that this day's walk was longer. We are nearing the end of our Pilgrimage, signs of city life are slowly appearing, but we have not yet left the countryside behind. Today is a perfect moment to reflect on your journey. A day when the Camino invites you to go at a snail's pace. Before dinner an orientation talk about the following days walk, and reflection time. Dinner and Overnight: Pedrouzo

DAY 9. Tuesday 26 May 2026: Pedrouzo to Santiago de Compostela.
